CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

New Delhi-1, the 9th August 1956

No. 1-CA(3)/56.—The following draft of certain amendments to the Chartered Accountants Regulations, 1949, which it is proposed to make in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (3) of Section 30 of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949, (XXXVIII of 1949), is published for information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 30th September 1956.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date specified will be considered by the Council of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, New Delhi.

In the said Regulations:--

I. In Regulation 16 for the sentence "This exemption will not be admissible in respect of examinations to be held after 1st July 1956", substitute the following, namely:

"This exemption will not be admissible in respect of Final Examinations to be held after 1st July 1956: Provided, however, this exemption shall be admissible in respect of the Final Examinations to be held prior to 30th June 1957 in the case of those who were serving the last twelve months of the period of practical training prescribed under Regulation 31 or Regulation 31A on 30th June 1956 and who were not eligible for admission to any of the Final Examinations held prior to 30th June 1956".

II. In the existing proviso to Regulation 16, after the word "Provided" and before the words "that a person" add the following word, namely:

"further".

III. In Regulation 20, for clause (ii), substitute the following, namely:

"(ii) has either completed such period of service as an articled clerk or as an audit clerk or partly as an articled clerk and partly as an audit clerk as is required under Regulation 31 or Regulation 31A for admission as a member of the Institute or is serving the last twelve months of such period in the case of those appearing before 1st July 1956 or is serving the last nine months of such period in the case of those appearing after 1st July 1956 but prior to 1st July 1957 or is serving the last six months of such period in the case of those appearing after 1st July 1957."

IV. In Regulation 22, insert the following new sub-regulation (2) after sub-regulation (1), namely:

- "(2) (a) Candidates for the Final Examination to be held after 1st July 1956 but prior to 1st July 1957 who are serving the last twelve months of their practical training on 30th June 1956 and who were not eligible for admission to any of the Final Examina tions held prior to 1st July 1956, or
- (b) candidates for the Final Examination to be held after 1st July 1956 but prior to 1st July 1957 who appeared and failed in any of the Final Examinations held prior to 1st July 1956; or
- (c) candidates for the Final Examination to be held after 1st July 1956 but prior to 1st July 1957 who had passed the First Examination held prior to 1st January 1956 and who were not eligible for admission to any of the Final Examinations held prior to 1st July 1956 will, if they so desire, be examined in the following subjects and Groups. Every candidate shall be required to pass in both the Groups. A candidate shall ordinarily be declared to have passed in a Group of the Examination held under these Regulations if he obtains 50 per cent. of the total marks in that Group at one sitting:—

Group I:—Advanced Accounting and Auditing (Four Papers of Three Hours each)

Paper (i)—Advanced Accounting.—Including knowledge of Accounts in connection with Flotation, Reconstruction, Amalgamation and Liquidation of Companies; Partnership Accounts, Insolvency and Bankruptcy Accounts.

Paper (ii)—Advanced Accounting.—Including knowledge of Accounts of Banks, Insurance Companies and Electricity Companies; Double Account System.

Paper (iii)—Taxation and Cost Accounting.— Income-tax; Theory and practice of Costing; Stores Ledger; Labour; Wages; Standard

Group II.—Mercantile Law, Company law and Economics. (Three Papers of Three Hours

aper (i)—Mercantile Law.—Including the law relating to Negotiable Instruments; Arbitration and Awards; Insolvency; Rights and Duties of Liquidators, Trustees and Paper Receivers.

Paper (ii)—Company Law.—Including the law relating to special classes of companies and Income-tax Law.

Paper (iii)—Economics.—Elements of Economics including Currency, Banking and Foreign Exchange.

The above particulars are intended as a general guide to questions which may be asked in each paper.

A candidate who passes in only one Group shall be allowed four more attempts at the immediately following next four examinations to pass the other Group without being required at the same time to sit for the Group in which he has passed. If he then fails to pass in the remaining Group, he shall be required to pass in both the Groups when he next sits for the examination.

A candidate who passes in one Group of the Final Examination held under these Regulations or under the Auditor's Certificates Rules, 1932, prior to 1st July 1956 will be permitted four more attempts at the next four examinations commencing from the one held immediately after the above said date, to pass the other Group without being required at the same time to sit for the Group in which he has passed, provided he had not appeared and failed in any subsequent examination in the Group in which he had already passed:

Provided further that no candidate for the examination to be held in May 1957 will be governed by this sub-regulation unless he has appeared and failed in the examination held in May 1956 and/or November 1956 or having been admitted to the examination held in November 1956 proves to the satisfaction of the Council that he was prevented from appearing in that examination for reasons beyond his control. The decision of the Council in this regard shall be final."

V. Renumber the existing sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 22 as sub-regulation (3) and in that sub-regulation so numbered, after the words "after 1st July 1956" and before the words "will be examined" insert the following, namely:— V. Renumber the d not covered under sub-regulation (2) above". "and not

VI. In Regulation 34, for the words "but not later than 14 days after the date of the completion of the articles" substitute the following, namely:—

MINISTRY OF FOOD & AGRICULTURE

RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 1st September 1955

No. F.7-45/55-S.Instt.—The functions of the Indian Central Sugarcane Committee, as reconstituted vide Government of India Resolution No. F.7-32/53-Com.I., dated the 24th December. 1953, were defined to include inter alia development of Gur and Khandsari Industry in India. With the establishment of the All-India Khadi & Village Industries Board, development of the Gur and Khandsari Industry became the responsibility of the Board. It has accordingly been decided to limit the functions of the Indian Central Sugarcane Committee in relation to the Gur and Khandsari Industry to purely research problems.
